

HIGH GRADE ORE IS UNCOVERED AT SILVER BOW

People are Rushing Into the Old Camp and Wildest Kinds of Stories are Afloat as to Values—Leasers are Sacking Rich Ore.

Silver Bow is in the throes of another strike, this time said to be on the high grade ore. The wildest kind of stories are afloat regarding the value of the discovery, and rumor has it that they will go from $20,000 to $30,000 a ton.

Scott Hickey, a deputy sheriff, drove in from Silver Bow last night, and stated that there was shipping ore in the leases on the Silver Bow Bell. He says that there are sacks piled up ready for shipment which will go as high as $1000 a sack.

For the past two days a stream of people has been flowing along the Goldfield road on the way to the strike, while as yet there has been nothing doing in Tonopah. W. L. McGonagill, general manager of the Silver Bow Bell, said yesterday that he had only heard rumors of the rich finds, and that he was going to Silver Bow immediately to determine what there was in them.

Postmaster Cook of Silver Bow came into Tonopah day before yesterday with his usual monthly shipment from his lease on the Clifford property. To those with whom he met he imparted the information that there was considerable doing in the district, and that it was beginning to look like old times again, from the influx of people.

Silver Bow, at one time, had as many as four hundred people in the camp, and had started a newspaper there. The district was a milling proposition, but there was some very fine float found there, and there were some very high values found at a fair depth. Then came the Manhattan boom, and the men of Silver Bow went over the divide in a night. Some of them have drifted back to Silver Bow, but not the great majority. The camp was deserted before it was a full fledged one.

About two months ago the Catlin group was bought by Bert Smith, Charles D. Porter, and their associates, and they went right to work developing the property. They found some very high grade ore, and the leases on the McGonagill property, which adjoins the Catlin, went to work with renewed energy, and the big strike has been the result.

W. S. Johnson, who has interests in Silver Bow, heard of the new discovery on Tuesday. Adjoining the Catlin group on one side, he and his associates have the Hidden Treasure, close to which is the property of Wingfield and Nixon. On the other side of the Catlin, lies the McGonagill, or Silver Bow Bell mine, next to which are the Blue Horse, then the Midas, Midas No. 2, the Camp Bird and the Gem, all of the latter four being owned by Johnson and his associates.

"I have found considerable rich float on the Hidden Treasure," said Mr. Johnson, last night, "and of course it did not fall from the skies. There is a ledge there somewhere. All these properties lie on the same range of mountains, and Silver Bow is a most ideal camp. There is a living stream of water running through the camp, and there is timber in abundance for all purposes.

"We have found lots of ore that will go $28 a ton, splendid milling stuff, but what are you going to do with it out there? A mill or two in Silver Bow would start things, and you would soon see one of the biggest camps in the State. There is plenty of high grade ore there, too. On one trip I picked up a sample of the dump of the Catlin, and brought it in here. It lay around the office for a while, and finally I got into a controversy with a gentleman as to the value of it. I made the proposition to him that he get it assayed, and that if it went under $25 a ton, that I would pay for the assays, and that if it went above, he was to pay for it. He had three assays made and the lowest went $440, and the highest $449.

"That was a sample picked from the dump at random. There is, to my mind, a great future for Silver Bow, and the people of this town should not allow Goldfield to take it away from them. There are good roads to the camp, but they should be improved. Here is one man, Cook, who has a lease out there, and is making all kinds of money, working it, and hauling in his ore himself. Now the leases on Silver Bow Bell have struck it. If someone gets busy and puts in a mill there, no matter how small it is to start, you will find another Tonopah there. It is almost impossible to tell the ore from the Catlin and the Montana Tonopah apart. There is certainly going to be a big camp at Silver Bow."

WIDE DECLINES IN DAY'S SELLING

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—There were evident signs of a renewal of liquidation of securities today, the current setting with special clearness through the low-priced stocks, those selling below forty being most affected. The majority of stocks of this classification sold today at the lowest prices of the year and made wide declines in the course of the day's dealings. Stocks of this grade were favorites in Holland and those that are most so, were most affected in today's liquidation. The selling orders were said by the commission houses to come direct by cable from Amsterdam, and were so concentrated and conspicuous as to give rise to reports that financial embarrassment in Amsterdam was forcing liquidation. Other low-priced stocks, both among railroads and industrials, especially among non-dividend payers, came into movement today. Amsterdam selling was attributed to difficulties peculiar to that market and was not associated with the conditions of properties the stocks of which were being sold. On the domestic side, however, of industrial and financial conditions were an influence, and prompted liquidation, supplementary to that for foreign account. Growing misgivings are caused by the persistence of rumors of falling off in orders from various classes of equipment and of reduction of labor forces in several industries. Bonds were heavy. The total sales valued $1,734,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—It is stated that the shipping trade is somewhat concerned at the turn taken by the Federal inquiry into Standard Oil operations, which may lead to a general investigation of the relations between the steamship lines with corporations engaged in heavy export business. ## CHICAGO DEFEATS DETROIT

Score - - 3 to 1

[By Associated Press.]
CHICAGO, Oct. 9.—The National league team defeated the Detroit pennant winners of the American league in the second game of the series for the world's championship this afternoon. The score was 3 to 1. Slow pitching and several slight accidents caused the contest to lag for over two hours. The delay was trying to the patience of the big crowd, which again filled almost every inch of seating room. The locals discarded the new gray uniforms in which they appeared yesterday, wearing their clean white home uniforms. The change seemed to put them more at ease and also apparently benefited the Detroit players, for both teams played more steadily than on the opening day. After the first four and a half innings had dragged through an hour and thirty minutes, some sparkling fielding and sharp hitting and base running hastened the contest to an end. Mullin and Pfeister were the pitchers and Payne went behind the bat in place of Schmidt. Otherwise the teams lined up as on the preceding day. Schmidt's retirement was primarily due to his inaccurate throwing, but in this respect the change brought small improvement, as five stolen bases credited to the local team testify. The playing conditions were improved. The crowd numbered 21,900 as against over 24,000 yesterday, while the warm sunshine and absence of the chilly breeze of the first day, kept the spectators and players in more comfort. The hitting of Rossman was a feature of the contest.

RUSHING WORK ON FORTIFICATIONS

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—A cable to the Sun from Manila says: Engineers and marines have made remarkable progress in rushing work on the fortifications, despite heavy rains and poor transportation facilities. Twenty-four guns have been installed on Grande Island, at the entrance to Subig bay, including ten of 6.5 inch caliber, the best navy guns which are mounted on heights. Complementary forts have been erected on the mainland. Satisfactory work is being done on the larger and permanent fortifications on Corregidor island, at the mouth of Manila bay, and at the torpedo station. The troops throughout the islands have been actively practicing and are now in splendid condition. The local naval squadron engaged in maneuvers during the last week, and will practice night tactics this week. Thus all branches of the service, though small in numbers, are being made efficient.
